THE WOW RETREAT · 2027

Da Nang

Where purpose and pause meet.

APRIL 16 – 19, 2027 · DA NANG, VIETNAM

FOUR DAYS FOR Vision.
Courage.
Impact.
Where purpose and pause meet.

THE WOW RETREAT

Why join?

No one becomes their bravest self alone.

The WOW Retreat is a four-day coaching retreat for women who are already capable, committed, and carrying a lot. It isn't about doing more. It's dedicated space to step out of the noise, hear yourself again, and decide what comes next, on your own terms.

SISTERHOOD, NOT THERAPY

You'll be among women who know the weight of leadership, ambition and responsibility, and who understand that real clarity comes through connection, not fixing. This is where strangers become sisters, through honest conversation and genuine support.

CLARITY YOU CAN CARRY HOME

Guided by professional coaches, you'll move through structured reflection, facilitated conversation, and unhurried time by the sea. You'll align with what matters to you now, work through what's been quietly holding you back, and leave with clear intentions you can actually act on, and a circle of women who have your back long after the retreat ends.

UNIQUELY WOW

The experience

Four days doesn't sound like much. But it's enough to put your roles down for a while and notice what you have been too busy to hear.

It starts the moment you arrive. The logistics are handled, the pace drops, and the first evening asks nothing of you but to be among women who carry what you carry.

From there, each day builds on the one before:

DAY TWO

Vision and Purpose

hearing what you actually want now, not what you are supposed to want.

DAY THREE

Courage and Confidence

saying out loud what you want next, and owning it, with women who get it.

DAY FOUR

Impact and Resilience

turning insight into intentions you can carry home.

Mornings begin with guided work alongside our coaches, followed by time out together in and around Da Nang. Afternoons leave room for reflection and, if you wish, a 1:1 of your own. Evenings are long dinners and honest talk as the light goes down. Full, but never rushed.

You leave clearer, lighter, and with a tribe of your own: women who keep showing up for you long after the flight home.

WOW Retreats are held in inspiring places around the world, and where a retreat happens is never accidental. We choose each destination not for its beauty alone, but for what that beauty makes possible: the space to slow down, reflect, and reconnect with what matters most.

For our Vietnam retreat, that place is Da Nang.

With its beautiful coastline, lush mountains and rich cultural heritage, Da Nang offers a wonderful setting to step away from the demands of everyday life. Here, the calm of the sea meets the warmth of Vietnamese hospitality, inviting us to slow down, gain fresh perspectives and make space for new possibilities. It is a place to nourish both mind and body, discover something new, and reconnect with ourselves and one another.

That's what sisterhood means: walking alongside you until your strategic pause becomes your empowered next chapter.

APRIL 16 – 19, 2027

Our accommodation

Naman Retreat: A sanctuary by the sea

Nestled along Da Nang's coastline, Naman Retreat blends contemporary luxury with traditional Vietnamese architecture: bamboo pavilions, lush gardens and the steady rhythm of the ocean. With its spa, wellness experiences and quiet spaces for reflection and conversation, it is more than a place to stay. It is the backdrop for everything the retreat is about: meaningful conversations, slowing down, connection and re-connection, and new possibilities.

TRAVEL

Getting there

One of the wonderful things about Da Nang is how easily accessible it is, yet how far removed it feels from everyday life. Set along Vietnam's beautiful central coast, it offers the perfect balance of convenience, natural beauty and cultural discovery.

FLYING INTO DA NANG

Da Nang International Airport (DAD) is well connected to major cities across Asia, making it a convenient destination for our international WOW community.

Direct flights are available from regional hubs including Manila, Singapore, Bangkok, Kuala Lumpur and Hong Kong, as well as Hanoi and Ho Chi Minh City.

For those travelling from further afield, including Europe, the Americas and the Middle East, Da Nang can be reached through major international hubs. We recommend comparing routes and allowing sufficient time for connections.

ARRIVING AT NAMAN

Our home for the WOW Retreat is Naman Retreat, a beautiful beachfront sanctuary approximately 20–30 minutes from Da Nang International Airport. The journey takes you towards the coast, where the bustle of the city gives way to lush gardens, distinctive bamboo architecture and the calming presence of the sea.

PLANNING YOUR JOURNEY

If your schedule allows, why not arrive earlier or extend your stay to discover more of Vietnam? Da Nang is an excellent starting point for exploring the region, including the lantern-lit streets of Hoi An, the ancient temples of My Son and the spectacular landscapes of central Vietnam.

However you choose to travel, we are happy to advise on your journey and airport transfers.
